Sorted Nano Photo Challenge 2019

We challenge you to take photos that fit with each of the following captions or titles below. Be as creative, humorous, whacky or serious as you like. You can do as much or a little of the challenge as you want.

There will be prizes for the best entries in the following categories:

- Best all round group of photos that fulfil the captions
- Best / Artistic Photo
- Best Selfie
- Cleverest / funniest photo.

Submit your photos, attached to the relevant captions to the following email address:

Expert level challenge

If this all sounds too easy for your youth group and you'd like something that's really going to test your creativity make sure that your series of photos contain an object or person that begins with each letter of the alphabet. For example your first photo could have an aardvark in it somewhere, your second could have a beetroot in it, etc. Be inventive, this might be a test of your vocabulary as you find synonyms to cover each letter!
